SALUTE TO SOLIDARITY

RDH Partners Hosts Rally for Entertainment Industry Workers

ATLANTA, GA (October 3, 2023) – In a show of support for striking industry workers as well as a celebration of the recent end to the WGA strike, local IATSE member-owned broadcast, cinema, and telecommunications equipment provider RDH Partners will host a rally to honor the strength and resilience of the film & television community.

Trade unionists, screen actors, writers and the general public are invited in a salute to solidarity at the RDH facility in Smyrna on Saturday, October 7, 2023. The event will showcase the latest technology and techniques as well as provide an evening of entertainment with live music, complimentary refreshments, and the opportunity to catch up and network with friends and colleagues.

WHEN: Saturday, October 7, 2023, from 7:00pm – Midnight (12:00am) ET

WHERE: RDH Partners, 5375 Oakdale Rd SE, Smyrna, GA

WHAT TO EXPECT: family-friendly celebration of the entertainment industry's unrelenting spirit

- RDH Open House featuring the latest tools and techniques
- Local Union Rallying with members and representatives of IATSE, WGA, and SAG-AFTRA
- Complimentary refreshments
- Entertainment: live music, an on-stage karaoke session, and DJ performance
- Networking and mingling with industry professionals
- Raffle for multiple prizes, including 'Five-Dollar Friday'-style cash pot drawings for three lucky union members

The Writers Guild of America (WGA) was on strike against the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers (AMPTP) for 148 days. Work stoppage continues as negotiations between the Screen Actors Guild (SAG-AFTRA) and AMPTP resume. SAG-AFTRA has been on strike since July 14 after failing to reach a deal on a new contract.
